

Payment and Collection of Fees

Grass Roots Nursery Group: Fees Policy

Purpose:

To establish clear procedures for fees and payments at Grass Roots Nursery Group, ensuring transparency and fairness.

Key Principles:

- Fair Payment System: Offer flexible payment options and support families facing financial difficulties.
- Clear Communication: Communicate fees, payment deadlines, and consequences of late payments clearly.
- Transparency: Provide detailed information about fees and the reasons for changes.
- Fair Practices: Adhere to fair practices regarding fee payments and withdrawals.

Fees and Payments

- Monthly Payments: Fees are payable in advance on a monthly basis.
- Payment Methods: Accept bank transfers, card payments, tax-free childcare accounts, or cash.
- Payment Deadlines: Adhere to payment deadlines and issue reminders for late payments.
- Late Payment Fees: Implement a late payment fee for overdue payments.
- Individual Payment Plans: Offer flexible payment plans for families facing financial difficulties.

Fee-Paying Sessions

- Withdrawal Notice: Require four weeks' written notice for withdrawal.
- Non-Payment Consequences: Suspend the child's place and charge fees for attended sessions.
- Funded Hours: Reduce to just funded hours if fees are not paid and require prepayment for additional hours.

Employer Childcare Voucher Schemes

- Accept payment through childcare voucher schemes.

Refunds

- Refunds are generally not given, except in exceptional circumstances.
- Consider refunds for closures due to uncontrollable reasons (e.g., terrorism, vandalism, fire, storm damage, floods, pandemics, snow).

Fee Reviews

- Review fees annually and provide written notice of any changes.

Notice Periods

- Require four weeks' written notice for withdrawal or change of booking.

- Inform the management team of your child's departure to manage the waiting list effectively.

Additional Considerations

- Consider the impact of fees on families and offer support when needed.
- Ensure clear communication and transparency throughout the fee payment process.
- Review the policy annually to align with current practices and regulations.

By implementing this policy, Grass Roots Nursery Group can maintain a fair and transparent fee structure, while also providing support to families who may be facing financial challenges.
